

Delivering Dreams: South Florida's Luxury Estates

July 2021 marked a significant milestone in the realm of property markets with the establishment of Tommy Crivello Real Estate Group. Specializing in the distinguished community of Southwest Ranches in Broward County, Tommy has swiftly become synonymous with upscale equestrian living. The mission of Thomas Crivello Real Estate Group is to provide the most professional, educational, reliable, and dedicated service in the industry.

From Military Precision to Real Estate Visionary

Tommy's robust roots in construction and honorable service in the Navy laid a strong foundation for his career. His strategic relocation to South Florida in 2002 signified the beginning of a new chapter. A natural progression from leading appraiser to licensed real estate authority in 2008, Tommy's focus pivoted to high-end ranches and luxury homes, capturing the essence of South Broward's luxury lifestyle.

A Realtor's Reputation Built on Results

Tommy's approach is a blend of exceptional skill and unwavering commitment to his client's success. His prowess is evident in the staggering $93 million in sales achieved through 48 transactions over two and a half years. Adept at representing both buyers and sellers, he has secured over half the land sales in Southwest Ranches!

A Client-Centric Philosophy

Clients who choose Tommy Crivello enjoy a service that blends a personal touch with the utmost professionalism. Tommy stands out for his outstanding negotiation skills and unwavering commitment to client satisfaction. He has earned a reputation for trustworthiness and consistently delivering exceptional results. His approach, anchored in honesty and constant availability, guarantees a smooth and supportive experience for every transaction.

Visionary Goals and Community Ties

Tommy's ambitions stretch beyond personal success, as he plays an active role in local organizations and community growth. His contributions have heightened the allure of Southwest Ranches and garnered national attention, solidifying the community's standing as a premier destination.

Away from the world of real estate, Tommy finds solace in the fairways, indulging in disc golf to unwind and stay physically active. With an eye on the future, he envisions a thoughtful expansion of his enterprise, always prioritizing the quality of service over quantity.
